“Meditating on Scripture can take several different forms. Sometimes we can reflect on a single text, turning it over in our mind. For example, the early monks used to memorize a verse and repeatedly meditate on it while they worked. This practice like the repetition of the Hail Mary in the Rosary, drew them close to God in prayer.”

— From Conferences, by St. John Cassian, as explained in "Saints on Scripture" from The New Jerusalem Bible: Saints Devotional Edition.
