If a man wants to be always in God's company, he must pray regularly and read regularly. When we pray we talk to God; when we read God talks to us.

All spiritual growth comes from reading and reflection. By reading we learn what we did not know; by reflection we retain what we have learned.

Reading the holy Scriptures confers two benefits. It trains the mind to understand them; it turns man's attention from the follies of the world and leads him to the love of God.

From the Book of Maxims by Saint Isidore, bishop, as recorded in the Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. II, page 1760.
