“If a man wants to be always in God’s company, he must pray regularly and read regularly.

When we pray we talk to God; when we read, God talks to us.

All spiritual growth comes from reading and reflection. By reading we learn what we did not know; by reflection we retain what we have learned.

Reading the holy Scriptures confers two benefits. It trains the mind to understand them; it turns man’s attention from the follies of the world and leads him to love of God.

... No one can understand holy Scripture without constant reading, according to the words: Love her and she will exalt you. Embrace her and she will glorify you.

The more you devote yourself to a study of the sacred utterances, the richer will be your understanding of them, just as the more the soil is tilled the richer the harvest.”

From the Book of Maxims by Saint Isidore, bishop, as found in Liturgy of the Hours Volume II, page 1760.
