“The first school of prayer—as we have seen in these weeks—is the word of God, Sacred Scripture. Sacred Scripture is an ongoing dialogue between God and man, a progressive dialogue in which God shows himself ever closer, in which we can become ever better acquainted with his face, his voice, his being; and man learns to accept God, to know God, and to talk to God. Therefore, in these weeks, in reading Sacred Scripture, we have sought to learn from Scripture, from this ongoing dialogue, how we may enter into contact with God.”

From A School of Prayer, by Pope Benedict XVI, page 272.
